ATF Delegates All Set For 2016 Edition In Manila, Philippines

The 35th instalment of the ASEAN Travel Forum (ATF) is set to showcase products and services from over 40 destinations across the 10 ASEAN countries, with a representation of more than 450 exhibition booths on the show floor. Host Philippines is showcasing 13 regions from across the country. Manila's Entertainment City will be home to key ATF activities including the three-day TRAVEX travel trade mart from 20 to 22 January 2016, held at the SMX Convention Centre Manila.

"ATF has been a key trade event for the Philippines that has proven to produce good results for our travel suppliers over the years. This showing at ATF 2016 will be one of Philippines' best with over 150 exhibiting booths from across the country. Participation at ATF 2016 also includes a strong showing of corporate hotel chains such as CHM Hotels, FRHI Hotels & Resorts, Furama Hotels International, HPL Hotels & Resorts, Park Hotel Group, Premier Inn Hotel, Sol Melia, InterContinental Hotels Group, Starwood Asia Pacific Hotels & Resorts, Best Western International, Hyatt Hotels & Resorts, Movenpick Hotels & Resorts, AccorHotels, Pan Pacific Hotels Group and Wyndham Hotel Group", said Susan del Mundo, Chairperson of ATF 2016 TRAVEX Sub-Committee.

Lindawati Muhlis, Head of Sales & Marketing Indonesia of Premier Inn South East Asia shared why ATF is the platform to showcase the brand to buyers, "In addition to regional inbound sales, our presence at ATF also increases market awareness for our brand across ASEAN and beyond."

With just one month away, the international event that features the largest collection of ASEAN tourism products and services will host 400 buyers around the world. The appeal of ASEAN destinations has drawn the interest of global buyers from across 65 countries, with the participation of top markets such as Australia, France, Germany, India, Italy, Malaysia, Poland, Russia, Singapore, United Kingdom and United

SMX Convention Centre Manila

States of America.

Confirmed hosted buyer Chow Keng Fong, General Manager of Poloair Holidays Shanghai, China PR who organised an incentive trip for 65 people in January to Bangkok and Chiang Mai, says that Thailand is one of the ASEAN countries that is popular among Chinese travellers in terms of its attractions, shopping and culinary experiences. "With demand at hand, ATF is ever more so an important travel industry event and I find it very relevant to our business expansion plan," remarked Chow.

Christopher D'Souza, Global MICE Consultant of Liberty Travel, United States of America said, "I can't think of any trade event that presents Asia in a better format than ATF which brings together 10 ASEAN countries all under one roof. Attending ATF allows me to source for my clients with ease."

Some 100 hosted media from around the world will join 75 local media from the Philippines to cover the latest travel developments that the region has to offer. These media include editors, journalists, and publishers from travel publications, travel bloggers and TV producers. Official media sessions include the tourism ministers' press conference and media briefings by all 10 ASEAN countries.

William McGough, Travel Writer of Conde Nast, Gear Patrol, United States of America shared, "As a travel writer, it is invaluable to be able to shake hands with buyers, suppliers, media and professionals alike who work within Southeast Asia, and are able to provide me with great insights into new and exciting initiatives in the region. ATF is the platform for me to reach out to these people. I also enjoy being on-site to receive the latest news from the media briefings for each country, giving me an 'insider scoop' on the year to come."

Juhan Kamaruddin, Editor of Gaya Travel, Malaysia concurred, "I find that ATF is an important platform for all ASEAN countries to meet, compare notes, update on each other's progress with regards to tourism and push for a more integrated ASEAN. The region offers so much exoticism, diversity and getaway opportunities not just for those outside of ASEAN, but also for those based in ASEAN. From a media standpoint, ATF allows me to obtain updates directly from the ASEAN members about their latest tourism offerings."

- Open to all delegates.
- Registration is on a 'First-come, first-served basis' (Limited to 125 persons per day).

Manila Heritage Tour

Highlights: Intramuros

What to Expect

As the city center of the Philippines, Manila is a dense stew of urban development and historic sentiment. The tour will take you to Intramuros, one of the best models of a medieval fort outside Europe. Explore the once majestic Intramuros, (Spanish for "walled city") and relive the glory days of Old Manila. Fort Santiago guards the entrance to the Pasig River.

Within the fort grounds is an oasis of lovely manicured gardens, plazas and fountains leading to its arched gate and pretty lily pond.

The Rizal Shrine museum, the building where Dr José Rizal – Philippines' national hero – was incarcerated as he awaited execution in 1896, contains various fascinating displays of Rizal memorabilia and a recreation of his cell and the courtroom trial. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site San Agustin Church and the San Agustin Museum. Tour the Casa Manila, a lifestyle museum replicated from an 1800's home, and enjoy a brief cultural show depicting the pre colonial history of the Philippines.

Post-Show Tours | 23 -26 January 2016 | 4D/ 3N

Ilocos: UNESCO World Heritage Tour

Highlights: Vigan – Paoay – Laoag – Burgos – Bangui

What to Expect

An interesting blend of local culture with the Spanish influence on the North West Coast of Luzon covering the provinces of Ilocos Sur and Ilocos Norte. Tourists will be fascinated of several UNESCO World Heritage Sites for churches such as Paoay church and Sta. Monica in Sarrat, also you will have the exceptional experience in a Spanish-colonial town in Asia known as "Vigan". Every house paints a historical picture of yesteryear, and the future of the city. Step into the stunning beaches of Ilocos Norte, from the blackest of black in Laoag, the brown sands in Currimao, and the white sands in Pagudpud. Feast on the local delicacies of this region such as the: longganisa (local sausage), empanada (savory pastry stuffed with longganisa), bagnet (crispy, fattening pork belly that melts in your mouth) and the chichacorn (Puffed, crunchy, and flavored corn).

Cordillera Heritage Tour

Highlights: Baguio – Atok – Buguias – Bontoc – Banaue

What to Expect

The Cordilleras encompasses majority of the areas within the largest mountain range in the country. Having reinvented itself as the Philippine's Premiere Highland Region, it is steeped in culture and teeming with natural resources that makes it a haven for tourists, businessmen, and seekers of adventure or simply, peaceful immersion. Explore the Ifugao Rice Terraces, the country's National Cultural Treasure and considered to be the 8th Natural Wonder of the World. The rice terraces were etched along the contours of the hills and mountains around the Ifugao province. You will find a 2,000-year-old man-made engineering feat looking like a staircase built for the gods. Experience Sagada at its finest, dubbed as the "Shangri-la of the Philippines." Visit the 200 hanging coffins buried for 500 years. Explore Baguio City, one of the country's most famous cities in the Philippine and which has been celebrated as the Summer Capital of the country for the past 99 years. Here, you live like a local by visiting the Tam-Awan Village and take a peek at how the local indigenous groups live, and the strawberry taho is a must-try when you visit Baguio.

Southern Luzon's Heritage, Wellness, Culinary Trail

Highlights: Tagaytay – Taal Heritage Town – Batangas Beach Holiday

What to Expect

The tour takes you to the provinces closest to Metro Manila. It might just be an hour or two away, but the diverse topography and varied natural attractions make this tour interesting. Beaches and dive spots. Forests and caves. Mountains and hills. Waterfalls and hot springs. It's all here. The area is also rich in history. It's where the Philippines' independence from Spain was first declared in 1898. It's the birthplace of national heroes such as Jose Rizal (from Calamba, Laguna), Emilio Aguinaldo (from Kawit, Cavite), Apolinario Mabini (from Tanauan, Batangas) and Miguel Malvar (from Sto. Tomas, Batangas). This is the home of Laguna de Bay – the country's largest freshwater lake. It also boasts of Taal Lake, which contains the world's smallest active volcano. Step into Nurture Wellness Village, a place where supreme relaxation and rejuvenation upholds. Travel back in time through the Taal Heritage Village. Have a sip of Arabica coffee from Amadeo, pastries from the local coffee shop that makes the place as the "coffee capital of the Philippines". Then, proceed to Hamilo Coast, in the municipality of Nasugbu in Batangas province, bounded by the West Philippine Sea (South China Sea) on the west and cloud-covered mountain ranges in the east. Three coves at Hamilo Coast have been declared Marine Protected Areas (MPAs), namely, Pico de Loro Cove, Santelmo Cove, and Etayo Cove. Hamilo Coast forms part of the global Coral Triangle and lies at the entry of the Verde Island Passage. Capture the one of the most significant links to the global ecosystem of the Coral Triangle in the Philippines, the "Verde Island Passage" located between Batangas and Oriental Mindoro in Luzon. The Verde Island waterway is the "center of marine biodiversity".

El Nido

Highlights: El Nido

What to Expect

Home to the most stunning beaches in the Philippines, El Nido Resorts recently won the 2015 PATA Gold Award for the Environmental Education Programme category, a distinction it garnered by rallying its partners and the local community—to support its training programs on sustainability and the protection of natural resources. Go island hopping on the 45 islands and islets, marvel or better yet, climb over the 250 million year-old limestone cliffs or just enjoy a relaxing massage by the beach. Because if you simply want to get away from it all, then, El Nido is the place to be.

Palawan: The Last Frontier

Highlights: Puerto Princesa – Honda Bay - Sabang

What to Expect

Experience the Philippines' last frontier. Voted as the "Best Island in the World" in the recent Conde Nast Travelers Readers choice award, Palawan is an elongated island that stretches within the waters of Luzon Sea, off the islands of Mindoro and North Borneo. It is one of the most sought destinations in the country for its abundant natural resources and scenic beauty. Its capital, Puerto Princesa City, aptly nicknamed "the city in a forest" has been named the Philippines' cleanest and greenest city and has been internationally recognized for environmental excellence. The tour will take you to Puerto Princesa's pride, the Puerto Princesa Subterranean River (or Underground River), a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the New 7 Wonders of Nature. The entire area where the Underground River is located is actually a national park and a model of biodiversity. More than 800 plant species, including almost 300 trees, 195 bird species, 30 mammals, 19 reptiles, and eight bat species call this area home. At Honda Bay, explore nearby islands to snorkel, non-stop swimming, and picnic lunch.

Northern Palawan's Eco Adventure

Highlights: Busuanga - Coron

What to Expect

Busuanga, Palawan is situated in what is considered as Philippine's last ecological frontier, in the Province of Palawan. Discover the pristine and natural attractions, marine reserves, tropical jungles, sanctuary for the most exotic animal, plant, and aquatic life in the country. It offers a wide array of activities, from visiting our scenic island beaches, wreck diving, catching the life of our exquisite corals, river cruising on mangrove-laden forest, kayaking, hiking our lush rainforest, hills, mountain scenic view, waterfalls, and natural springs.

Bicol Express

Highlights: Albay - Sorsogon

What to Expect

Bicol is for the nature lovers – volcanoes, beaches, caverns, coves, lakes, parks and other natural wonders, you name it. A visit to this region is not complete without catching a glimpse of the nearly-perfect cone of Mayon Volcano. Explore the Bulusan National Park; a 3,673 hectare nationally protected lush forest and wildlife sanctuary reserve that features community-based tourism. Misibis Bay is a private island resort where ultimate luxury and exhilarating adventures come together. Misibis Bay's stylish architecture and interiors allow guests to completely immerse in incomparable relaxation. Thrill over the abundance of activities within the resort. Try hobie cat sailing, wind surfing, take a sunset cruise or better yet try everything. See for yourself if Misibis Bay will live up to your expectations and to its tagline as, "Your luxury island playground." You will have the best culinary experience of Bicolano's specialties such as laing (taro leaves and chili cooked in coconut milk), pinangat (taro leaves, chili, meat and coconut milk wrapped in gabi leaves and tied securely with coconut leaf), and sili-flavored ice cream (spicy ice cream) should be on your checklist.

The Visayan Charms

Highlights: Bohol - Cebu

What to Expect

Experience the charms of the Visayan region. Explore the Queen City of the South, known as Cebu and visit its historical landmarks such as the Magellan's Cross and Basilica de Santo Nino. This heady mix of urban vibes and casual provincial airs makes it a favorite destination of those seeking a showcase of the harmonious co-existence of history, culture and modernity. Head to the countryside tour of Bohol, home to two of the most famous tourist attractions in the Philippines – the Chocolate Hills that looks like perfect mounds of chocolate, and the Philippine tarsiers, primates so small that they fit comfortably in the palm of your hand. As you slowly drift down the Loboc River, you can enjoy a delicious Filipino buffet and a serenade from the local community. Swim or snorkel in the secluded island of Balicasag in Panglao, one of the country's best dive sites.

Negros Y Cebu

Highlights: Siquijor - Dumaguete – Cebu City

What to Expect

Dumaguete is known as "The City of Gentle People." It's easy to see why – this is a serene university town filled with gentle locals, and its atmosphere is conducive to artistic and scholarly pursuits. Visit the Silliman University, established in 1901 and the oldest American-founded University in Asia. Stroll around the campus and visit the Silliman Anthropological Museum, which contains artefacts that date back 2,000 years and an ethnographic compendium of the different indigenous groups of the Philippines. Then, we will take you to the mysterious allure of Siquijor and have a close encounter of friendly creatures of the sea as you enjoy watching and swimming with the friendly turtles of Apo Island. Come and enjoy the adventure of a lifetime experience.

Islands to Highlands

Highlights: Davao – Tagum – Samal Island

What to Expect

"From Islands to Highlands." That is the promise of the Davao region. This unique mix of diversity, both in landscape and in culture, makes the Davao region a must-visit. Whether you prefer islets that vanish or mountains that dominate skylines, Davao makes good on its promise and always delivers adventure. Pearl Farm Beach Resort is a premier tourist attraction in the Philippines, located in the peaceful and quiet islands of Malipano and Samal Island. This renowned world-class beach resort is the perfect getaway for people who are in search of a heavenly and blissful retreat. Learn a bit of history and science as you go through a Banana Plantation tour and witness through Hijo Plantation, on how they manufacture and grow fresh and organic products ready for the global market. Take the plunge and have a bite of durian, the hedgehog shaped, "king of fruit" known for its strong odor, its flesh described by 19th century British naturalist Alfred Russel Wallace as "a rich custard highly flavoured with almonds."
